Forecast For Northern Ireland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 1600 on Saturday 03 Apr 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Clear skies initially, turning cloudy for many by dawn.

This Evening and Tonight:
Dry with some sunshine this evening. Staying dry for the rest of the night but with some fog patches and low cloud developing in the early hours. Cloud thickening from the west by dawn. Frost in places. Minimum temperature 0 deg C (32 deg F).

Sunday:
Mainly dry with some brightness at times. Cloud and rain spreading from the north in the evening. Freshening northwesterly winds. Maximum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Cold and bright with wintry showers on Monday and Tuesday, strong northerly winds with gales along the north coast on Monday. Drier and less windy on Wednesday.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.